

african red family

Volume One Number Two

114

TERMINAL MADONAGU

This issue includes:

African Intellectuals must serve
African workers and peasants

also

08512/98 Marxist analysis of imperialism

30p

Contents

Editorial	1
African Intellectuals must serve African Workers and Peasants	2
Mao- Tse-Tung and Lenin on the Intellectual	17
A Marxist-Leninist Analysis of Nkrumahism	21
Nigeria: Zik's Echoes	32
Uganda and Amin	41
Imperialism in Ethiopia	51
Book Review	60
Death of Amilcar Cabral	64

RATES

ONE YEAR (Post Paid)	Africa £	Europe & Asia £	North & South America $
Individual Subscriptions	: 1. 10. 0d.	2.50	8.00
Educational Institutions and Libraries	: 2. 10. 0d.	4.00	12.00
Government and Similar Bodies	: 3. 10. 0d.	6.00	18.00

Special 25% Reduction for authentic African Students, either at Home or Abroad. Application must be sent to the BUSINESS address.

Please make cheque, P.O., M.O., etc. payable as follows:-

OVERSEAS (Places outside Africa):	Hamibantu Publications, c/o 107 Pevensey Road, London E.7, OAH, England.
EAST, CENTRAL & SOUTHERN AFRICA:	Hamibantu Books, c/o P.O.Box 4539, Dar-Es-Salaam, Tanzania.
WEST & NORTHERN AFRICA:	Hamibantu Books, c/o 23, Ojelade Street, Ikorodu Road, Fadeyi, Lagos, Nigeria.

AFRICAN RED FAMILY: Journal of All- African Revolutionary Marxist-Leninist Movement

EDITORIAL & BUSINESS: c/o 107 Pevensey Road, London E7 0AH

EDITORS: Remy K; Ben Mohan: REGIONAL EDITORS: S. Rikahuru, Shongo Gboguntiwon

Printed by The Russell Press Ltd., 45 Gamble Street, Nottingham. Tel. 0602-74505.

1851/2/98