PROBLEMS OF PEACE AND SOCIALISM

TO OUR DEAR READERS

OWING to the crushing effect of SAP and FEM which is completely beyond the publishers' control, the costs of producing newspapers and magazines in Nigeria have again gone up astronomically. Some newspapers have already doubled their cover prices and some magazines are thinking twice how to fight the inflationary trend.

Your favourite Marxist monthly magazine, the NEW HORIZON is caught in the SAP trap.

As from this issue, our cover price goes up to ₦3.00 where other magazines have stepped forward to ₦5.00.

The time is out of joint. We want our readers to bear with us as we groan under the pains of SAP.

All we need do now is to give you more of what keeps you with us - a higher quality of commitment to our revolutionary struggle.

Please be with us always.

'TROUBLE DON COME O!'

I wish to congratulate Mr. Ikpe Etokudo on his write-up in the May-June 1988 Edition of the New Horizon titled "Trouble Don Come O." ;

This fearlessness of your stand on pressing national issues is commendable. Please continue your good work by telling them the truth.

I was impressed by your fine coverage of the common man in Nigeria. I never knew anything about how and why we got into the foreign debt mess until I read NEW HORIZON.

Finally, I enjoy reading the COUNTER POINT column in which you asked, 'Who is Nigeria's Last Lady? I say, 'poor Man's wife of course! Please bring us more news about our suffering masses and expose please, how Monkey de work Baboon de Chop.
