BOOK STOCK

This is to announce the opening of the NEW HORIZON BOOKSHOP.
We have books on politics, economics, science and technology; books for children, novels (fiction and non-fiction), etc.
A few examples:

Marx K., Engels F., Lenin V.I. ON COMMUNIST SOCIETY. Cloth 13x20cm 160 pp

The collection contains passages from works which deal with the communist social and economic system and its two phases: socialism and communism proper. The readers will find in it material on the economics and the political structure of classless communist society.

Mirsky G., D. Sc. MICROPROCESSORS IN INSTRUMENTATION. Paper 12.5x20cm 160pp

This book provides the background necessary for the selection and use of micro-processors for digital time-interval counters, frequency meters, voltmeters, and oscilloscopes. Ample space is devoted to the advantages and promises offered by instruments built around microprocessors, which are in the mainstream of advanced instrumentation.

Gnedenko B., Corr. Memo. USSR Acad. Sc. THE THEORY OF PROBABILITY. Cloth 14x21cm 392pp

This book presents the fundamentals of probability theory, the mathematical science that deals with the laws of random phenomena. These laws play an extremely important role in physical and other fields of natural science, in technology and engineering, economics, linguistics and so forth.

Wentzel E., D. Sc., Ovcharov L., D. Sc. APPLIED PROBLEMS OF PROBABILITY THEORY. Cloth 14x21.5 cm 415 pp

The book contains a large number of problems that pertain to various applied sciences, mainly technology. Each chapter starts with a brief summary of the theoretical concepts necessary for solving the problems.

WE have more than one thousand different titles on all subjects to choose from and can meet orders at short notice.

INTRO

WITH the lifting of ban on party politics a matter of weeks away, the tempo of political activities is rising to a climax. Hence, this month, as always, we serve you some thought-provoking political news menu. They include:

1 Gani Fawehinmi, the acclaimed people's lawyer takes a critical look at the present military administration, the Nigeria Labour Congress and the radicals. And, he says the government has "socio-economic AIDS," the NLC leadership is timid and placid while those radicals who beat their chest hardest are a pack of opportunists donning the toga of radicalism to achieve selfish ends.

2 Nigeria has had the misfortune of being led by members of the bourgeois class since independence. Now, the country is in the period of transition as a prelude to the emergence of the third republic come 1992. We bring you an incisive analysis of the situation and what the working class has to do now.

3 The call for Marxist-Leninists unity has been making the rounds for quite some time. Indeed, attempts have been made but these have all failed miserably due to what many call "structural defects" in the approach to this unity.

Now, true Marxist-Leninists across the country have cemented a formidable front-- the ALL NIGERIA SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (ANSA).

The aims and objectives of the alliance are explained in detail in our indepth report.

CONTENTS

* Politics 1992 and Trade Unions	4
* 'This Government has AIDS'	5
* Workers' Party, a Must	8
* Political Power: What workers must do	11
* A new Marxist-Leninist Front Emerges	14
* Counterpoint	16

RELEASE
THE NEPA ELEVEN

THE FMG must release and rehabilitate the NEPA Eleven.

They committed no crime against anybody, least of all the state.

The right of workers to embark on industrial action in pursuance of their legitimate rights when denied is universally accepted. This administration cannot abandon the garb of decency for that of a fascist dictatorship.

Workers, all working people united, appeal for the release of the NEPA 11.

IBB must listen to the voice of the people.
