

REVOLUTIONARY MONOGRAPHS ON CULTURE AND SOCIETY IN AFRICA

PERSONAL

The Military as Revolutionary Vanguard: A Critique

By

BJORN BECKMAN
Ahmadu Bello University
Zaria, Nigeria

CBS Y
B5/3/858

(Series 2, No 1, 1986)

Published by:

POSITIVE REVIEW in association with
NIGERIAN DEMOCRATIC REVIEW

Statement of Policy

The Monographs published in this series are intended for the theoretical self-clarification of revolutionary groups and individuals concerning the options, interpretations, strategy and tactics conducive to our increased effectiveness in praxis. Thus the series will base itself on the Cabralist tradition of the "weapon of theory".

The views and opinions expressed in each monograph do not necessarily reflect the views and opinions of the editorial board. Contributions should be addressed to:

Biodun Jeyifo,
Department of Literature in English,
University of Ife, Ile - Ife, Nigeria.

Editorial Board: Biodun Jeyifo; Kayode Komolafe; Bene Madunagu

A JOINT PUBLICATION OF POSITIVE REVIEW and NIGERIAN DEMOCRATIC REVIEW